2. [REDACTED] as reported Report No. [REDACTED] has a 25X1A2g unique potential to supply highly valuable information on:

- 1) guided missile production in plants of the Soviet aircraft industry
- 2) Soviet practices related to US-USSR exchange visits of a military nature.

Further information on missile component production at Plant #45 is an urgent requirement in the light of other urgent intelligence information on the Soviet aircraft industry. Moreover, detailed information on Soviet preparations and actions during the General Training visit to Plant #45 on 27 June 1956, may have a significant bearing on evaluating the potential value of a possible exchange visit between guided missile specialists of the United States and the USSR.

3. Because information on the Soviet guided missiles program is a First Priority National Intelligence Objective, and in view of the nature of this requirement, the Guided Missiles Branch, ORR, requests periodic information on the status of reinterrogation of SS-3229.

4. This requirement has been coordinated with the Guided Missiles Division, OSI, and that Division agrees both with the substance and urgency of this requirement.
